

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap Exclusively.

MILLIONS of Women Use CUTICURA SOAP, exclusively, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.

Cuticura Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor, consisting of CUTICURA SOAP (25c.), to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT (25c.), to instantly relieve itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT (25c.), to cool and cleanse the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the severest humor when all else fails. FOTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CO., Sole Prop., Boston, Mass. "All about the skin, scalp, and hair." Free.

How They Look on Campbell's Efforts to Hang Taylor.

Chattanooga Times, (Tenn.)

We are told that Tom Campbell of New York and Cincinnati appeared before the Governor of Indiana to argue for the extradition of ex-Governor Taylor on the requisition of Mr. Beckham.

Tom was aided by Justus Goebel of Cincinnati, the malignant brother of the late William Goebel. Can't the Beckham set find a reputable Kentuckian who will attend to the state's business in Indiana? Must they call in a lawyer from another state and send with him a sleuth who is not a Kentuckian? The word also comes that the indictment of Taylor, as accessory, names no principal, and is therefore fatally defective; and this indictment was drawn by Campbell, or at least approved by him. Poor old Kentucky!

Cincinnati Times-Star.

The little thing of not knowing who Mr. Taylor is accessory to does not bother the Kentucky conspirators while the bribery fund holds out.

Nashville Banner, (Tenn.)

When the Republicans of Kentucky nominate a candidate for Governor, see if the political committee in charge of the $100,000 reward fund doesn't have the nominee indicted for the murder of Goebel.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Tom Campbell threatens to take twenty Kentuckians to Indiana and arrest the man he wants regardless of Governor Mount. Campbell's connection with the burning of the Cincinnati

Courthouse gives him some peculiar notions about legal procedure in the United States.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Kentucky's Goebelites are still engaged in indicting the Republicans of the states as accessories in a murder without being able to give the slightest idea of who is the principal in the case.

Pittsburgh Commercial-Gazette.

Governor Mount of Indiana believes he is doing a good thing for the state of Kentucky as well as for his friend Taylor in refusing to honor Governor Beckham's requisition. His logic is sound, and his action keeps Kentucky from further disgracing herself by an act of injustice conducted under the forms of the law. Taylor is not a fugitive from justice, but from oppression. He has been robbed of the highest office within the gift of the people of his state, but the conspirators want to rob him of his liberty and his life as well. The thoughtless will throw on the Indiana Governor the full weight of their censure, but the thoughtful will bestow praise instead. Believing that Taylor has been selected as a victim of unreasoning malice and that he will be convicted regardless of law and evidence, Governor Mount exhibits true manliness and high moral courage in steadfastly refusing to be influenced by partisan clamor to use the powers of his office to the Kentuckian's harm. The Bluegrass commonwealth can have Mr. Taylor when it can assure him justice, Governor Mount declares, and he points out an easy method of demonstrating that Kentucky justice is not a mockery. With this answer to the Beckham demand Kentucky will have to be satisfied for the present. The Indiana Governor has decidedly the better of the argument.
